

Northern Schools Trust: Privacy Notice for Applicants

Privacy Notice for Applicants (also provided to parents and carers)

This information might be difficult for you to understand. You can ask your parents or another adult such as your teacher to help you understand it.

It is about how we use information about you and what we do with it. We call this information about you 'personal data' or 'personal information.'

Who we are

You already know that your prospective school is called The Studio School Liverpool and that it is part of the Academy Trust called Northern Schools Trust but we have to tell you that the Academy Trust is the organisation which is in charge of your personal information. This means the Academy Trust is called the Data Controller.

The postal address of the Northern Schools Trust is 120 Heyworth Street, Liverpool, L5 0SQ

If you want to contact us about your personal information you can contact our Data Protection Officer who is Sian Turner. You can leave a letter for her at reception or send one by post.

How we use Student Applicant information

We, the Northern Schools Trust collect and hold personal information relating to our future students and may also receive information about them from their previous school, local authority and / or the Department for Education (DfE). We use this personal data to:

- Communicate information about the status of your application
- Keep you up to date with activities ahead of starting at the school that will help you to prepare to move
- Plan resources and staffing to support your learning
- To comply with the law about sharing personal data

This information will include your contact details, national curriculum predicted assessment results, attendance information, any exclusion information, and personal characteristics such as your ethnic group, any special educational needs you may have as well as relevant medical information. We will also use photographs of you. More details about this are in our photograph policy.

For students enrolling for post 14 qualifications, the Learning Records Service will give us the unique learner number (ULN) and may also give us details about your learning or qualifications.

The use of your information for these purposes is lawful for the following reasons:

- The Academy Trust is under a legal obligation to collect the information or the information is necessary for us to meet legal requirements imposed upon us such as our duty to safeguard students.
- It is necessary for us to hold and use your information for the purposes of our functions in providing schooling and so we can look after our students. This is a function which is in the public interest because everybody needs to have an education. This means we have a real and proper reasons to use your information.

Northern Schools Trust: Privacy Notice for Applicants

- We will not usually need your consent to use your information. However, if at any time it appears to us that we would like to use your personal data in a way which means that we would need your consent then we will explain to you what we want to do and ask you for consent. This is most likely to be because we are involved in activities which are not really part of our job as an Academy Trust / School but we are involved because we think it would benefit you. If you give your consent, you may change your mind at any time. If we think that you will not understand what we are asking then we will ask your parent or carer instead. Usually, we will involve your parents even if you can make your own decision.

When we collect personal information on our forms, we will make it clear whether there is a legal requirement for you / your parents to provide it, whether there is a legal requirement on the school / academy trust to collect it. If there is no legal requirement then we will explain why we need it and what the consequences are if it is not provided.

When we give your information to others

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, the law requires us to pass on certain information to Liverpool, Wirral, Sefton, St Helens, Knowsley or Halton Local Authority who have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds. We may also share certain personal data relating to children aged 16 and over with post-16 education and training providers in order to secure appropriate services for them. A parent / guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth be passed to Liverpool, Wirral, Sefton, St Helens, Knowsley or Halton Local Authority by informing Tracey Rennie. This right is transferred to the child once he / she reaches the age 16.

We will not give information about our applicants to anyone without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. If you want to receive a copy of the information about you that we hold, please contact:

- Tracey Rennie, Applications Executive

We are required, by law (under regulation 5 of the Education (Information about Individual Pupils) England Regulations 2013, to pass some information about our pupils when they accept a place at The Studio School Liverpool to the Department for Education (DfE). This is the part of the Government which is responsible for schools. This information may, in turn, then be made available for use by the Local Authority.

The DfE may also share information about pupils that we give to them, with other people or organisations. This will only take place where the law, including the law about data protection allows it.

For more information about how your personal information is stored and used when you join The Studio School Liverpool, please see our general Privacy Notice.

We may also disclose your personal data to:

- Your current or previous school
- Disclosures connected with SEN support – e.g. non-LA professionals

Northern Schools Trust: Privacy Notice for Applicants

- School nurse
- School Counsellor
- CAMHS (Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service)

The information disclosed to these people / services will include sensitive personal information about you. Usually this means information about your health and any special educational needs or disabilities which you have. We do this because these people need the information so that they can support you.

Our disclosure of your personal data is lawful for the following reasons:

- The Academy Trust is under a legal obligation to disclose the information or disclosing the information is necessary for us to meet legal requirements imposed upon us such as our duty to look after our pupils and protect them from harm.
- It is necessary for us to disclose your information for the purposes of our functions in providing schooling. This is a function which is in the public interest.
- We have a legitimate interest in disclosing your information because it is necessary in order to provide our pupils with education and pastoral care and connected purposes as outlined above.
- We will not usually need consent to disclose your information. However, if at any time it appears to us that we would need consent then this will be sought before a disclosure is made.

It is in your vital interests for your personal information to be passed to these people or services. We will ask you for consent once we think that you can understand what we are asking. This is because the law requires us to ask you if you can understand. Normally, we involve your parents too. By law we won't need their consent if you can give it but parents like to be involved because it is part of looking after you. Before you are old enough to understand we will ask your parents to consent for you.

We do not normally transfer your information to a different country which is outside the European Economic Area. This would only happen if one of your parents lives abroad or if you move to a new school abroad. If this happens we will be very careful to make sure that it is safe to transfer your information. We will look at whether that other country has good data protection laws for example. If we cannot be sure that it is safe then we will talk to you and your parents about it and make sure that you are happy for us to send your information. As this is not something we normally do and we don't know which country we might need to send your information to, we cannot tell you more about it now but if we want to transfer your data to a different country then we will tell you whether or not we think it is safe and why we have decided that.

How long we keep your information

We only keep your information for as long as we need to or for as long as the law requires us to. If you do not join The Studio School Liverpool, your information will be removed after one year. If you join The Studio School Liverpool, most of the information we have about you will be in your student file. We usually keep these until your 25th birthday unless you move to another school in which case we send your file to your new school. We have a policy which explains how long we keep information. It is called a Records Retention Policy and you can find it on our website or ask for a copy at reception.

Northern Schools Trust: Privacy Notice for Applicants

Your rights as an applicant to The Studio School Liverpool

You have these rights:

- You can ask us for a copy of the information we have about you
- You can ask us to correct any information we have about you if you think it is wrong
- You can ask us to erase information about you (although we may have good reasons why we cannot do this)
- You can ask us to limit what we are doing with your information
- You can object to what we are doing with your information
- You can ask us to transfer your information to another organisation in a format that makes it easy for them to use.

There is more information in our Data Protection Policy or you can ask Tracey Rennie.

The policy can be found on our website or you can ask for a copy at reception.

You can complain about what we do with your personal information. If you are not happy with our answer to your complaint then you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office:
